

Call for Case Study Proposals

Meaningful Social Engagement Practices for Designing the Future Society

March 8th – 10th , 2023. Serviceology Annual Conference in Kyoto, Japan

We will provide a special session at the 11th National Conference of Society for Serviceology.

The Society for Serviceology (SfS) investigates scientific service systematization and encourages technology advancements for industrial problem solving. It also seeks to provide a collaboration platform for specialists in business and many academic sectors on services. The annual domestic conference will be held in Kyoto University in Kyoto City, Japan, in 2023, with the topic of Serviceology in Designing the Future Society. Although the annual conference is primarily aimed at domestic participants in Japan, SfS would like to invite global scholars and practitioners to share their unique experiences and ideas in the form of case studies.

Advantages for Selected Participants

- ¥100,000 for the first prize
- Free hotel stay for two nights in Kyoto, Japan
- Conference registration fee exemption
- Unique and exceptional Kyoto city tour (optional, with a set fee)
- Online publication (with Online ISSN and DOI)
